ARGENTINA WARMING UP TO RADIO WORK

BUENOS AIRES, Sept. 18.-There is one class of trader in Buenos Aires temaining unaffected by the general business depression—the dealer in radio apparatus.

Wir-less telephony has secured a wonderful grip on the imagination of the Argentine, and wherever one travels in and around the city at least two or three aerials are constantly within view, While enthusiasm is so great, however, the arrangements for the broadcasting of programs are painfully casting of programs are painfully inadequate and the listener in has to content himself with amateur recitals on wheezy old phonographs.

Transmission is, in most cases, fashity also, and that, combined with well-worn discs, while sufficient to saitsty the amatuer that his set is 0. K., makes radio telephony in Argentina more of a painful rite than a pleasure.
